

One Rule Sheet

Mom and Dad have probably had to ask you more than once to do something. They may even have had to ask three or four times for you to do something. Try doing anything they ask the very first time they ask. This is a personal discipline work sheet so you can earn your testing privilege. You must complete five tasks the VERY FIRST TIME you were asked. You must complete the sheet and return it with your test papers prior to the test.
